

Kenneth A. Blanco

Regulatory Innovator |
Risk/Compliance Leader | Global
Executive | Trusted Counselor/Advisor

Kenneth A. Blanco is a recognized leader in the areas of law, financial integrity, regulatory compliance and international government relations. With an extensive background as an attorney, regulator and compliance officer, he has held leadership roles in both the private and public sectors. He has advised senior U.S. government officials, including attorneys general, cabinet members, and has collaborated with international leaders.

Blanco was Director of the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN) at the Treasury Department, where he worked on combating global financial crimes. In addition, he was Chief Compliance Officer at Citigroup, leading anti-money laundering and anti-corruption programs. He has testified before Congress and holds high levels of security clearance. His career began as a prosecutor in Miami, specializing in organized crime, public corruption and drug trafficking, and he later held various positions in the U.S. Department of Justice.